Explicación · Explanation

Lee cada recuadro despacio. Primero en español, luego en inglés. Read each box slowly: first in Spanish, then in English.

¿Qué es? · What is it?

Have got significa tener. Lo usamos para hablar de las cosas que tenemos (una bici, un lápiz), de la familia (un hermano), de las mascotas (un perro) y de cómo somos (ojos azules, pelo largo).

Have got means to have. We use it for things we own, family, pets and what we look like.

Sujeto + have got / has got + cosa

1 · Afirmativa · Affirmative

Con I, you, we, they usamos have got. Con he, she, it (una sola persona, animal o cosa) usamos has got. La palabra got se queda siempre igual.

With I, you, we, they we use have got. With he, she, it we use has got. The word got never changes.

I / you / we / they + have got + a bike

he / she / it + has got + a bike

I have got a green bike.
→ Tengo una bici verde.

My brother has got a big dog.
→ Mi hermano tiene un perro grande.

We have got two cats.
→ Tenemos dos gatos.

Las contracciones · Short forms

Forma larga · Long	Forma corta · Short
I have got	I've got
you have got	you've got
he has got	he's got
she has got	she's got it has got	it's got
we have got	we've got
they have got	they've got

Ojo: she's got = she has got. Pero she's nine = she is nine. El apóstrofo puede ser has o is: mira si después viene got.

Careful: 's can mean has or is. If got comes next, it means has.

HAVE GOT y HAS GOT

Have got and has got · tener

📖 Explicación · Explanation | Nivel A1

2 · Negativa · Negative

Para decir que no tenemos algo, ponemos not después de have / has: haven't got y hasn't got. ¡No usamos don't ni doesn't con have got, y tampoco decimos no!

To say we don't have something, put not after have / has: haven't got and hasn't got. Don't use don't or no.

I / you / we / they + haven't got + a cat

he / she / it + hasn't got + a cat

I haven't got a phone.
→ No tengo móvil.

She hasn't got brothers.

They haven't got a garden.
→ Ellos no tienen jardín.

HAVE GOT o HAVE · have got or have?

Have got es para tener cosas. Pero have solo (sin got) también sirve para acciones: desayunar, ducharse, pasarlo bien. En las acciones nunca va got.

Have got = possession. Have (without got) is also used for actions. Actions never take got.

Tener · have got

- I've got a bike.
- She's got a cold.
- We've got a dog.

Acción · have

- I have breakfast at 8.
- She has a shower.
- We have fun!

3 · Preguntas · Questions

Para preguntar, ponemos Have o Has delante del sujeto y got detrás. ¡Es como un salto: el verbo salta al principio! (Así se vence al Verbo Saltarín.)

To ask a question, put Have or Has before the subject and got after it.

Have + I / you / we / they + got + a pen?

Has + he / she / it + got + a pen?

Have you got a pencil?
→ ¿Tienes un lápiz?

Has your mum got a car?
→ ¿Tu madre tiene coche?

Have they got a pet?
→ ¿Tienen ellos una mascota?
