¿Qué es? · What is it?

Muchos verbos muy usados no siguen la regla de -ed: son los verbos irregulares. Cada uno tiene su propia forma de pasado y hay que aprenderla: go → went, eat → ate, see → saw. Pero muchos se parecen entre sí: si los aprendes por familias, ¡es mucho más fácil! En esta ficha trabajamos solo la afirmativa.

Irregular verbs don't take -ed. Each one has its own past form. Learn them in families — it's much easier!

Sujeto + pasado irregular + resto

I / she / they + went + to the beach

1 · Regulares e irregulares · Regular and irregular

Los regulares añaden -ed (play → played). Los irregulares cambian a su manera (go → went): ¡hay que aprenderlos! Igual que los regulares, el pasado irregular es el mismo para todas las personas: I went, she went, they went.

Regular verbs add -ed; irregular verbs change. The past form is the same for every person: I went, she went, they went.

I played football and we won!
→ Jugué al fútbol y ¡ganamos!

Lucía cooked pasta and I made a salad.
→ Lucía cocinó pasta y yo hice una ensalada.

→ Yo me fui a la cama pronto. Mi hermana se fue tarde.
