PREGUNTAS y ÓRDENES

Reported questions & commands · estilo indirecto

Nivel B2

En estilo indirecto, las preguntas pierden la inversión y las órdenes van con to + infinitivo.

1 Preguntas Wh-

- "Where do you live?"
- → She asked me where I lived.
- Orden de afirmativa: sin do / did ni ?

2 Preguntas sí / no

- "Are you ready?"
- → He asked if / whether I was ready.
- if = whether = si

3 Órdenes

- "Sit down." → She told me to sit down.
- "Don't shout." → He told us not to shout.
- Igual: order, warn, remind sb to

4 Peticiones

- "Can you help me?"
- → She asked me to help her.
- ask + persona + (not) to + infinitivo

5 Reporting verbs

offer / refuse / promise	+ to + inf.
advise / warn / remind	+ sb + to suggest / deny / admit	+ -ing
apologise for	+ -ing

7 Error común

✗ She asked me where did I live.

✓ She asked me where I lived.

Sin inversión y sin did.

6 Consejo rápido

- Pregunta indirecta = sin signo ?
- ~~suggested me to~~ → suggested (that) I...
- Sigue el paso atrás de tiempos.

Explicación · Explanation

Lee cada recuadro despacio. Primero en español, luego en inglés. Read each box slowly: first in Spanish, then in English.

¿Qué es? · What is it?

En el mapa de ESTILO INDIRECTO aprendiste a contar afirmaciones. Aquí vamos a contar preguntas, órdenes, peticiones y consejos. El paso atrás de tiempos, pronombres y expresiones de tiempo sigue igual, pero hay tres novedades:
- las preguntas indirectas llevan orden de frase afirmativa (sin inversión, sin do / does / did y sin ?);
- las órdenes y peticiones van con to + infinitivo;
- en lugar de say o tell, usamos reporting verbs más precisos (advise, refuse, suggest…).

Reported questions use statement word order; commands and requests use (not) to + infinitive; reporting verbs summarise what people meant.

asked + (persona) + wh- / if + sujeto + verbo told / asked + persona + (not) to + infinitivo

Truco: la pregunta desinflada · Tip: the flat question

Piensa que la pregunta indirecta es una pregunta desinflada: pierde el aire (do, does, did), pierde la forma (la inversión) y pierde el gorrito (?). Y para órdenes y peticiones, recuerda: TO = TOdo lo que alguien te pide u ordena (told me to, asked me to).

A reported question loses do / does / did, the inversion and the question mark. Commands and requests → to.

1 · Preguntas con Wh- · Wh- questions

Repetimos la palabra interrogativa (what, where, when, why, how, who…) y después ponemos sujeto + verbo, como en una frase normal. Desaparecen do / does / did y el signo de interrogación, y el verbo da el paso atrás. Para introducirlas usamos ask (+ persona), want to know o wonder.

Keep the question word, then subject + verb. No do / does / did, no question mark, and backshift the tense.

asked + (me) + where + sujeto + verbo

💼 "Where do you work?" → She asked me where I worked.
→ «¿Dónde trabajas?» → Me preguntó dónde trabajaba.

🎬 "What time does the film start?" → He asked what time the film started.
→ «¿A qué hora empieza la peli?» → Preguntó a qué hora empezaba la peli.

😢 "Why are you crying?" → My dad asked me why I was crying.
→ «¿Por qué lloras?» → Mi padre me preguntó por qué lloraba.

PREGUNTAS y ÓRDENES

Reported questions & commands · estilo indirecto

📖 Explicación · Explanation | Nivel B2

2 · Preguntas de sí / no: if o whether · Yes / no questions

Si la pregunta no tiene palabra interrogativa (se contesta con yes / no), añadimos if o whether (= si) y después sujeto + verbo. Whether es un poco más formal y es el preferido con or not: She asked whether or not I was coming. ¡Ojo! Este if no es el del condicional: aquí significa si en el sentido de whether.

For yes / no questions, add if or whether + subject + verb. Whether is slightly more formal.

asked + (me) + if / whether + sujeto + verbo

"Are you hungry?" → She asked me if I was hungry.
→ «¿Tienes hambre?» → Me preguntó si tenía hambre.

"Did you lock the door?" → He wanted to know whether I had locked the door.
→ «¿Cerraste con llave?» → Quería saber si había cerrado con llave.

"Can I pay by card?" → The customer asked if she could pay by card.
→ «¿Puedo pagar con tarjeta?» → La clienta preguntó si podía pagar con tarjeta.

Pregunta directa o indirecta · Direct or reported question?

La gran diferencia es el orden de las palabras. En español apenas cambia (¿Dónde vive? → Preguntó dónde vivía), por eso los hispanohablantes arrastramos la inversión. En inglés, la pregunta indirecta ya no es una pregunta: es una afirmación y termina en punto.

A reported question is not a question any more: statement word order and a full stop.

? Directa · Direct
- "Where does she live?"
- "What are you doing?"
- "Did you enjoy it?"
- "How much is it?"

📝 Indirecta · Reported
- He asked where she lived.
- She asked what I was doing.
- They asked if I had enjoyed it.
- I asked how much it was.

3 · Preguntas de sujeto · Subject questions

Cuando who o what es el sujeto de la pregunta, la pregunta directa ya no tiene inversión (Who called?), así que en indirecto el orden es el mismo: solo hay que dar el paso atrás. ¡No metas un sujeto extra!

If who / what is the subject, the word order stays the same: just backshift the verb.

"Who called?" → She asked who had called.
→ «¿Quién ha llamado?» → Preguntó quién había llamado.

"What happened?" → The police officer asked what had happened.
→ «¿Qué ha pasado?» → El policía preguntó qué había pasado.

"Who wants more cake?" → Grandma asked who wanted more cake.
→ «¿Quién quiere más tarta?» → La abuela preguntó quién quería más tarta.

4 · Órdenes: tell + persona + (not) to · Commands

Para contar una orden o una instrucción usamos tell + persona + to + infinitivo. Si la orden es negativa, not va delante de to. En español usamos el subjuntivo (me dijo que me sentara), pero en inglés nunca se dice ~~told me that I sit~~. Mismo patrón: order, instruct, remind, warn.

Commands: tell + person + (not) to + infinitive. Not goes before to.

told + persona + (not) to + infinitivo

"Sit down, please." → The teacher told us to sit down.
→ «Sentaos, por favor». → El profesor nos dijo que nos sentáramos.

"Don't use your phone." → My boss told me not to use my phone.
→ «No uses el móvil». → Mi jefe me dijo que no usara el móvil.

"Remember to buy milk." → Mum reminded me to buy milk.
→ «Acuérdate de comprar leche». → Mamá me recordó que comprara leche.

5 · Peticiones: ask + persona + (not) to · Requests 🙏

Las peticiones (Can you…? Could you…? Would you mind…? …, please) se cuentan con ask + persona + (not) to + infinitivo. Aunque la frase directa tenga forma de pregunta, en indirecto ya no es una pregunta: es un favor que alguien pidió.
Compara: She asked me if I could swim (pregunta sobre capacidad) / She asked me to swim (petición).

Requests: ask + person + (not) to + infinitive, even if the original was a question.

asked + persona + (not) to + infinitivo

"Can you send me the file?" → My colleague asked me to send him the file.
→ «¿Me mandas el archivo?» → Mi compañero me pidió que le mandara el archivo.

"Could you not make so much noise?" → Our neighbour asked us not to make so much noise.
→ «¿Podríais no hacer tanto ruido?» → El vecino nos pidió que no hiciéramos tanto ruido.

"Please call me back." → She asked me to call her back.
→ «Llámame, por favor». → Me pidió que la llamara.

No backshift with to + infinitive; pronouns and time words still change.

6 · SUGGEST, el verbo trampa · Suggest: the tricky verb

Suggest es el reporting verb que más falla a los hispanohablantes, porque en español decimos me sugirió que fuera. En inglés nunca va con persona + to: ~~He suggested me to go~~. Hay dos opciones: suggest + -ing (sobre todo cuando incluye al que habla) o suggest (that) + sujeto + (should) + infinitivo. Con recommend pasa algo parecido: recommend + -ing o recommend (that)…

suggest + -ing / suggest (that) + subject + (should) + infinitive. Never ~~suggest sb to~~.

suggested + -ing

suggested (that) + sujeto + (should) + infinitivo

"Let's eat out tonight." → Ana suggested eating out that night.
→ «Cenemos fuera esta noche». → Ana propuso cenar fuera esa noche.

Clara's travel blog: passport control

When I landed in Toronto last summer, the officer at passport control was very serious. First, she asked me where I had flown from and how long I was planning to stay in Canada. I told her I was staying for three weeks.

Then she wanted to know whether I was travelling alone and if I had a return ticket. I said I was visiting my cousin. She asked me what my cousin did for a living, and I explained that he was a nurse in a hospital downtown.

Finally, she asked me to look at the camera and told me not to move. After a few seconds, she smiled, stamped my passport and told me to enjoy my stay. Later, my cousin advised me to always print my return ticket – just in case!
